

Week Commencing 3rd April 2006

St. Georges E in Division A swept past Jordan F1 4-1 with Paul Nason's brace, Lawrence Sweeney's single and the doubles together. David Jordan held onto one for F1. Saints then squeezed past Eathorpe D 3-2 with another brace from Paul and one from Lawrence. For Eathorpe, Eric Smith one and the doubles with Richard Freeman. LCP Dreamers saw off Eathorpe F 4-1 with braces from Simon Dainty and Simon Walmesley; Dave and Katie Hawker keeping the doubles in the fifth for Eathorpe. The two Simons for Dreamers then added the doubles to one single each for the match at 3-2 against Jordan F1; David and Mike Jordan both keeping one for F1, in a reverse of their last meeting when F1 won at 4-1. Dreamers then went down 3-2 to Eathorpe D, though Simon Dainty held one and the long doubles match with Simon Walmesley. Eric Smith gave Eathorpe his two and Richard Freeman one. Father and son Peter and Alistair Nicholson for Eathorpe E wiped out clubmates G 5-0. Eathorpe E then saw off Riverhouse Henley B 3-2, Peter Nicholson and Charles Wragg adding the essential doubles in the fifth to their one single each. Joe Shaw held two for Riverhouse. Better for Riverhouse against Eathorpe F where they won in a tight match at 3-2, Joe Shaw two and the doubles with John Averiss. Dave and Katie Hawker both took one for Eathorpe. Eathorpe F, however, were able to edge past their G colleagues at 3-2, Katie and Dave Hawker picking up the win with the doubles to add to one single each. G's Chris Long held onto his two singles.

In Division B three wins for Free Church G. Tom Crellin and Ricky Fell for G took singles and doubles to whitewash LCP Packers 5-0 and Free Church H 5-0. Church G followed on with a 4-1 victory over Church I, Ricky Fell two, Tom Crellin one and the doubles. Ross McDermott consoled the I's. Ryan Oldham and James Matharu for Eathorpe J wiped out Free Church I 5-0. Similarly Russell and Charlotte Spencer for Free Church J rolled over Church H.

Free Church K had the better of clubmates Church P in Division C to finish at 4-1, Lewis Barge two and the doubles with Jakob Lane, Callum Jeromson one. Chris Marlow held one point to console the P's. K also won at 4-1 against LCP Groovers, Jakob Lane two, Callum Jeromson one and the doubles with Lewis Barge; Sara Hemp consoling the Groovers with a single. Groovers recovered to edge past their LCP colleagues Inkers 3-2, Sara Hemp two and the doubles with Philippa Dalley. Nicky Barrett and Tom Moseley each scored for Inkers. In a 4-1 local derby Church N defeated Church O, Roald Myers two, Lauren Delday with her first singles win and the doubles together. Dale Murphy kept one for the O's. Church Q squeezed past Church M 3-2, with James Payne's brace and the doubles from Ashley Edwards and Holly Thompson. Georgina Scholes and Hollie Edwards kept one each for M, with Hollie's first ever singles victory - and that was against her younger brother. Scott Delday and Jack Hobbins for Church L whitewashed Church N 5-0. Pauline Parkes and Elizabeth Hancock for Eathorpe I wiped out clubmates Eathorpe H 5-0 though the match was closer than the score suggests. Hannah and William Saville took the doubles to add to Hannah's two and William's one to give Eathorpe K a 4-1 result over Free Church O. Kyle Thompson kept one for Church.
